The Ventura County Sheriff's Office said Tuesday that the identity of the man killed is Norm

Stewart, 29. Stewart was shot around 9 p.m. Sunday after he fled a traffic stop on Newhall Avenue near Rosemead Boulevard, according to the Sheriff's Office. Authorities said Stewart had been driving with a female passenger and had been stopped for an unspecified traffic violation. The woman was in the passenger seat and seated next to Stewart, who was in the backseat, according to the Sheriff's Office. Officers noticed the rear license plate was inoperative, prompting them to search for the vehicle and eventually pulling it over on Newhall Avenue. Officers tried to contact the occupants, but apparently the two were unable to speak in English, the Sheriff's Office said. The woman in the passenger seat fled the scene, and officers eventually found and detained Stewart in the center turn lane on the 118 Freeway. He opened the front door and struck one of the officers, who deployed a Taser and ordered Stewart to drop the weapon, the Sheriff's Office said. He refused to comply and the officers opened fire on the vehicle. Authorities said the woman had previously been arrested on suspicion of assault with a deadly weapon, and she had a no-bail warrant issued for an outstanding arrest warrant in neighboring Los

I can't get it to find new pictures that have appeared on Flickr yet. I'm about to look into it. EDIT: It is a web app...not a free software. I tried to make it into an.exe but found that impossible. So.. uhhhh..if u want to get it, u have to get it online. I believe U can download it from there. Posted 12 July 2005 - 05:34 PM pixifan Member
