Pushing off the door frame, another cushion, and you're good to go. I'm starting to understand why people with chronic illnesses such as arthritis sometimes describe a feeling of energy as feeling "well." The everyday activities I usually take for granted are now becoming automatic and pain free. I feel in control of my life again. I'm taking these simple, daily activities as proof that a life without chronic pain is achievable. I'm a fighter and I'm persistent, but I can't see myself continuing in that lifestyle forever. Sometimes in life, you have to let go. I've put off writing about this for months
